VOL. VI. NO. 97.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

LOUISVILLE'S BIG RACE.

Kentucky Derby day is but little more than a week away and expectation of a great race and a big field of starters runs high at Louisville. As to what they are counting on there the Courier-Journal of Sunday, says:

"A telegram received yesterday afternoon by assistant secretary Drensen from secretary Charles F. Price, of the New Louisville Jockey Club, will be read with great interest by all lovers of the turf, and also by those who love a contest. Here is the telegram:

"MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 21.—D. F. Drensen, Louisville, Ky.: Scoggan will start both Florizar and Highland Lad in the Derby sure. Schorr starts F. W. Brode sure and will bring ten to Louisville. CHARLES F. PRICE."

"The news that Florizar, Highland Lad and F. W. Brode will start in the Kentucky Derby insures a big field and a great contest. Lieutenant Gibson, Kentucky Farmer, Thrive, Dieudonne, Orontas or Hindus and Flaunt are also practically certain to start, and this would leave the following field to face the starter:

J. C. Cahn's b. c, Thrive, by Top Gallant—Elmira.

J. B. Lewman's br. c, Dieudonne, by Magnetizer—Mon Droit.

J. B. Lewman's b. c, Flaunt, by Forester—Display.

George J. Long's b. c, Orontas, by Azra—Starlight.

George J. Long's b. c, Hindus, by Volante—Ignite.

John F. Schorr's ch. c, F. W. Brode, by Cayuga—Prosperity.

H. J. Scoggan's b. c, Highland Lad, by Florist—Highlander mare.

H. J. Scoggan's b. c, Florizar, by Florist—Czarina II.

Charles H. Smith's br. c, Lieutenant Gibson, by G. W. Johnson—Sophia Hardy.

Woodford & Buckner's b. c, Kentucky Farmer by Leonatus—Plantress.

"Of course, there are a number of others which are likely to start. Among these are Star Bright, John E. Madden's colt, which, it is said, is being secretly prepared for the Derby at Latonia. Madden left Star Bright at Latonia, but whether he is being prepared to start in the Kentucky classic is a matter about which only Colonel J. E. himself could converse truthfully and intelligently. Then there are Benadier, R. J. Hiner's good colt, Waldeck and Soldan, the Middleton & Jungbluth pair, Tom McDowell's His Excellency, George Bennett's Admiral Schley, Bryan Obea's Colonel Strathy, which is being trained at Churchill Downs; Settle & Viley's Caviar and several others.

"At any rate, it is practically certain that at least seven, and probably ten, fine three-year-olds will face the starter when the red flag falls for the twenty-sixth Kentucky Derby. This will be the largest field in years, for it has been the exception rather than the rule for more than from four to six to start."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Jockey Bullman said in New York: "Sofala is certainly the best two-year-old filly on the coast, and may be better than M. F. Tarpey, the best two-year-old colt out in California. I rode Sofala in all of her eleven races and won nine of them. She was beaten once by Dunfree when that horse got a flying start—an advantage of about fifteen lengths over her. Her other defeat was not to her discredit, either."

"You must have laid up a tidy sum backing Sofala?" Bullman was asked.

"Didn't bet a dollar on her. In fact, I have only made one bet on a race horse in my life, and that was a $2 bet which I made when I rode my first race at Oakland on Lost Girl. Why, Bannockburn was at 5 to 1 in the betting in a stake race which I knew was at his mercy, and I won with him easily, but I had made up my mind not to get in the habit of using betting commissioners and I stayed off. This betting business is likely to get the best-intentioned jockey into trouble."

A Sunday special from Nashville says:

"A large number of racers received their finishing touches today and are now ready for the serious business just ahead of them. Some of the olders ones stepped the track at racing speed, while not a few of the younger division were sent to the half in winning time. The horses are all in fairly good racing shape for this season of the year. Among those that appear to be fit and ready are Ida Ledford, Loomam, Ocie Brooks, Dumbarton, Oak Maid, Pharaoh, Ida Fordham, Alfred Vargrave, Rena Campbell, F. F. V., Clipsetta, Mary S., N. C. Creed, Bell Punch, Kunja, Kufa, Lizzie McCarthy, Mr. Boffin, Bellamy, John Halsey, Colonel Frank Waters, Annie Lauretta, Miss Fonsolad, Quaver, Lizzie Kelly, Tip Gallant and the following two-year-olds: Crescent Queen, Invictus, Clerita, Kahki, William Gerst, Terminus, Dominick, Donna Sea, Lelia Barr and Dick Thompson.

There will be at least six starters in the Turf Congress Special, and nobody figures on fewer than a dozen in the Street Railway Stakes. The latter is for two-year-olds, and besides the Memphis contingent there are some first-class youngsters already here that will strip for this race. There will be one or two starters from the stables of Scott Harlan, Billy Weir, George Hendrie, Frank Bruhns, W. H. Jackson, Jr., John Brannon, H. L. Johnson, Gil Curry, J. H. Smith, Mannion & Connell.

"Some of these two-year-olds have worked very fast trials recently, and the race should furnish sport of a high order.

"New barns have just been completed, and 700 horses can now be accommodated. There are about 400 at the track. Some of the Memphis layout has commenced to arrive.

"Texas' Smith and his stable from New Orleans are among the late arrivals."

A colt recently arrived at the breeding farm of Burns & Waterhouse that is most appropriately named. He is by Mount McGregor—Shasta Water and he has been named Mount Shasta. The following is a list of the weanlings owned by Burns & Waterhouse:

Altamax—Duckling, colt,
Altamax—Crosette, filly,
Altamax—Picnic, colt,
Altamax—Paloma, colt,
Altamax—Tallada, colt,
Altamax—Happy Maiden, filly,
Altamax—Sonomis, colt,
Altamax—Juanita, colt,
Altamax—Rustice, colt,
Mount McGregor—Decoy Duck, colt,
Mount McGregor—Shasta Water, colt,
Lovedale—Kruna, filly,
Libertine—Berna, colt,
Sweet Rose had twin colts, both of whom died. Among the new brood mares to be mated this year are Recreation, Napamax, Humidity, Bit of Fashion and Rachael C.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Charles R. Brossman, the trainer of Imp, writes home to Chillicothe from Morris Park, where the mare is now quartered, that she will hardly be raced again until the Metropolitan Handicap, early in May, and every effort will be made to get her in tip-top shape for that race. Imp is expected to be in form by that time, and should be able to make a good showing, although it should not be forgotten that it was the middle of June last year before she struck her winning gait.

Winner—B. h, by Mariner—Eufaula.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. MelkARTH was well ridden and lucky to get through on the rail in the homestretch. Inverary II. was weakly handled and with a good ride would have won easily enough. Colonel Root ran well and finished strongly. Grady was virtually left at the post and ran a better race than the winner. Poorlands did well for six furlongs and Defiance showed early speed.

Scratched—17350 Flamaway, 103.

Overweights—Inverary II., 3 pounds; Colonel Root, 2; Grady, 1; Ramlet, 4.

MelkARTH, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Inverary II., place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Colonel Root, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f, by Rio Bravo—Cinderella.
Went to post at 2:40. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Miss Madeline showed the most speed and was best but her rider whipped her unnecessarily all through the homestretch. Nettie Clark finished fast. For Freedom weakened somewhat at the windup. Young Morello got off poorly and ran a fair race. Louise Hayman and Fine Shot showed speed but did not carry it far enough to be useful.

Scratched—17158 Tom Sharkey, 104; 17187 Gussie Fay, 102.

Overweights—Miss Madeline, 3 pounds.

Miss Madeline, place, 1 to 2; show, 1 to 4. Nettie Clark, place, 12 to 1; show, 6 to 1. For Freedom, show, 2 to 1. The Scot, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h, by Strathmore—Black Maria.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Captive was saved for the final rush through the homestretch and was much the best today. Scotch Plaid did his best and ran a good, game race, but Shields made too much use of him. Horton did not show his usual speed in finishing. Jael ran under restraint for six furlongs, but failed when it came to the real racing.

Captive, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Scotch Plaid, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Horton, place, 2 to 5. show, out.

Winner—Ch. g, by Take Notice—Happy Maiden.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 8 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second easily. Rollick got off flying in front with a good lead and this enabled him to win without urging. He may have been best anyway. Diderot got off poorly and ran a good race as usual. Moonbright might have been closer up with a more vigorous ride. Maresa ran a fair race and showed plenty of early speed.

Scratched—17473 Thorn Wild, 106; 17473 Madge Simpson, 103.

Overweights—Moonbright, 2 pounds; Maresa, 3; Intrepido, 1.

Winner—Br. c, by Watercross—Lizzie Hampton.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. The first three were driving hard. Sir Hampton ran close to the inner rail on the first turn, while nearly all the others went wide, and gained an important advantage, which he held throughout. He stood a drive for nearly a furlong. Ailenna was taken around on the outside of the first turn and finished strongly. With better luck and handling she would have won. Silver Tone was laid away out of the race to the stretch and then finished fast. Prestome showed speed for seven furlongs. Gauntlet weakened when the pressure came.

Scratched—17441 Rosalbra, 113; 17476 None Such, 110; 17243 Lost Girl, 108; 17477 El Mido, 106;

Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Perseus was well handled, ran a good race and was going away in the last thirty yards. Donator may have been best but he was cut off on the first turn and had to be taken around on the outside, causing him to tire at the end. Tirade was stopping at the finish. Storm King closed fast at the windup, as also did Croker. Anchored got off flying in front but he began to stop at the head of the homestretch. The winner was run up $300 by Perry Hildreth but was retained.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Silurian ran a good race and is a fair colt. He had to go all around his field to get to the front. Billionaire was in a pocket in the run home and did not get through until nearing the sixteenth post where O'Connor shot him up next to the inside rail. Russian was probably best as he was running over the horses at the end. He swung to the outside at the stretch turn. Sempire ran away seven furlongs to a false breakaway. Moor finished well and Shawnee displayed a dash of early speed.

Overweights—Silurian, 5 pounds; Russian, 1; Moor, 4.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Rinaldo II., after racing George Simons into exhaustion, managed to stall off Lindula's rush at the finish. The latter was wearing the leaders down at the end. Sir Fitzhugh was shut off on the first turn. Booker was of no help to him and the horse was closing on his own courage at the end. Long Isle ran in bar plates. The Corinthian came again and finished strongly after stopping at the stretch turn. Robert Bonner ran away two miles and a half on a false breakaway.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Silurian ran a good race and is a fair colt. He had to go all around his field to get to the front. Billionaire was in a pocket in the run home and did not get through until nearing the sixteenth post where O'Connor shot him up next to the inside rail. Russian was probably best as he was running over the horses at the end. He swung to the outside at the stretch turn. Sempire ran away seven furlongs to a false breakaway. Moor finished well and Shawnee displayed a dash of early speed.

Overweights—Silurian, 5 pounds; Russian, 1; Moor, 4.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Rinaldo II., after racing George Simons into exhaustion, managed to stall off Lindula's rush at the finish. The latter was wearing the leaders down at the end. Sir Fitzhugh was shut off on the first turn. Booker was of no help to him and the horse was closing on his own courage at the end. Long Isle ran in bar plates. The Corinthian came again and finished strongly after stopping at the stretch turn. Robert Bonner ran away two miles and a half on a false breakaway.

Lamp Globe ran a good race and came again at the end. Evans was hustling him all the way and rode an ill-judged race. Maximo Gomez was under restraint to the stretch, but collapsed when called on.
